Introduction

Read the story: "When I Grow Up" by Al Yankovic

Information Presentation
Information	Key Points
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• After reading the story, discuss with students jobs they would want when they grow up (write them on chart).	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Have students come up with one career they would want to have when they grow up.

Summary
All jobs and careers take different skills, help different parts of a community and wear different clothes.

Student Activities

Students will go on to Seesaw and take a picture of themselves. They will then decorate their picture to look like the career they chose. They will then record why they want to be a certain career with the sentence stem: When I grow up, I want to be a _____ because

_____.

Student Assessment

The teacher views their creation to see what career they chose. The teacher should be able to understand them clearly and understand their career drawing. Drawings can be printed for families and classmates to view in the hallways.
